Subject: Operating without registration of J&K Medical Council in different private clinics/centres (single practitioner clinic/ poly-clinics), Infertility centres/clinics, rehabilitation centres, de-addiction centres/clinics, hospices, domiciliary care providers, mobile clinics, medical camp service providers, voluntary service providers and all clinical consultation places/establishments where clinical consultation is provided by allopathic medical practitioners in Jammu and Kashmir

NOTICE

It has come to the notice of the J&K Medical Council that private clinics (single practitioner clinic/ poly-clinics), Infertility centres/clinics, rehabilitation centres, de-addiction centres/ clinics, hospices, domiciliary care providers, mobile clinics, medical camp service providers, voluntary service providers and all clinical consultation places/ establishments where clinical consultation is provided by allopathic medical practitioners in Jammu and Kashmir are allowing practitioners to operate without having registered with the J&K Medical Council, which is against the ethics & Rules.

The J&K Medical Council strongly impress upon all proprietors/Managers of private clinics (single practitioner clinic/ poly-clinics), Infertility centres/clinics, rehabilitation centres, de-addiction centres/ clinics, hospices, domiciliary care providers, mobile clinics, medical camp service providers, voluntary service providers and all clinical consultation places/ establishments where clinical consultation is provided by allopathic medical practitioners in Jammu and Kashmir not to permit any doctor, whether from Jammu & Kashmir or from outside, to practice or perform procedures/ surgeries/ investigations/ therapies in their establishments without having permanent registration or additional qualification registration from the J&K Medical Council, as may be the case. Such actions violate the rules/ ethics and constitute a serious breach of professional ethics and the code of conduct. The J&K Medical Council has taken serious note of this to safeguard human lives/patients attending these clinics/centres.

All proprietors/in-charges of above mentioned clinics/centres are directed not to allow any doctor/practitioner to practice or perform procedures/ surgeries/ investigations/ therapies without having necessary registration from the J&K Medical Council. They should advise doctors working without proper registration in Jammu & Kashmir to apply for registration online at JK Medical Council website www.jkmedicalcouncil.in to ensure the safety of patients/human lives and not conducting any breach of professional conduct. Failure to comply will result in disciplinary action against the medical professional under the Professional Conduct, Etiquette & Ethics Regulations, 2002.
